

Human Nature: UNDERSTANDING THE HUMAN PSYCHE

FOR EVERY STUDENT & PRACTITIONER OF MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONS

Breaking new ground by bringing together the Traditional knowledge of Islamic Theology, Jurisprudence and Spirituality with modern sciences, this course offers resources to understand the human nature better.

This 6-module course offered by al-Ghazzali Centre is available to anyone interested in Islam as a means to Personal Development, students from the various mental health faculties as well as professional mental health practitioners- from counsellors, medical researchers to psychologists. Based on numerous Traditional Islamic literature as well as modern scientific research, the course material is fully referenced and acts as a foundational guide for students, researchers and practitioners to recognise and acknowledge the Spiritual paradigm and its influence on the cognitive dimension of the human.

This course is not an instruction on the Traditional Science of Tasawwuf, but is a reference material for it, inviting students and practitioners to the excellence of the Islamic models for mental health and wellbeing.

Program Details:

Date:	Commences Saturday May 9th, 2009
Time:	Saturday 11am – 1pm, Monday 6pm – 8pm 6 weeks per module, total of 6 modules
Fees:	$250/module This program is not available free to Friendships members
Venue:	Al-Ghazzali Centre Academy 1021A Canterbury Road (Cnr. & entry via Willeroo Street) Lakemba NSW 2195
Enquiries:	academydirector@alghazzali.org Tel: (02)9708 1539

Registration is essential for this course at <http://alghazzali.org/events/human-nature>

www.alghazzali.org